

Organised by Institute for Environmental Security and EcoJust

Ecocide: Developing a View from The Hague, 5 November 2012

Institute for Environmental Security (IES)
Anna Paulownastraat 103, 2518 BC The Hague

List of Participants

Ms Catherine Alfonsi

Europol, Financial and Environmental Crime Unit

Dr Tim Boekhout van Solinge

University of Utrecht
Lecturer and Researcher Criminology, specialization in eco-crime.
Case study of deforestation in the Amazon and the impact on indigenous peoples.

Ms Shirleen Chin

IES
Project Officer, Multilateral
Environmental Agreements

Mr Reinhold Gallmetzer

Office of the Prosecutor/International Criminal Court

Dr Annelies Henstra

Children rights to nature, IUCN
Netherlands

Ms Polly Higgings

Eradicating, UK

Ms Annemarie Hitipeuw

International department, City The Hague

Ms Ingrid Kost

Peace Palace Library
Prepared Research Guide on ecocide for IES

Ms Katarina Kubovicová

IES
Project Officer, The Hague
Environmental Law Clinic

Ms Farisa Kuhn

IES
Project Officer, Ecocide

Dr Louis-Joan Lemmer

Case study of the Marsh Arabs in Iraq

Mr Gernant Magnin

WWF Netherlands
Involved in campaign with World Bank and TRAFFIC on illegal wildlife trafficking.

Mr Julian Newman

Environmental Investigation Agency, UK
Case study of smuggling of ozone depleting substances.

Mr Jonathan Struggles

Former Legal Officer in the Office of the Prosecution at the International Criminal Court for the former Yugoslavia, ICTY

Mr Jasper Teulings

Head Legal Department Greenpeace

Mr Wouter Veening

Chairman/President, IES
Facilitator workshop

Mr Jan van de Venis

JustLAW - Corporate Law and Human Rights

Ms Pauline Verheij

EcoJust
Co-organizer workshop.
Case study of transnational wildlife crime.

Apologies

Prof Steven Freeland

University of Western Sydney
Author of the 2004 seminal article Crimes against the environment –a Role for the International Criminal Court? He has since done much more detailed research on the topic, is delighted that subject has generated renewed interest and looks forward to cooperate further –will be in Europe January-June 2013.

Dr Hege Kjos

University of Amsterdam Law Clinic
Coordinator

Dr Berma Klein Goldewijk

UPEACE Centre The Hague

Prof Ronald Kramer

Western University of Michigan
He has written on ecocide, especially in relation to climate change. Sent article which was summarized at the workshop.

Mr Pablo Salazar Mendias

Europol
Secretariat of Europol's EnviCrimeNet

Mr William Pace

Convenor NGO Coalition for the International Criminal Court

Prof Marjan Peeters

University of Maastricht
She is currently focusing on legal issues related to EU energy policies.

Mr Dirk Pulkowski

Permanent Court of Arbitration
Legal Counsel Environment

Prof Nigel South

University of Essex
He has worked with Ms. Polly Higgins, also on the mock trial.

Prof Jaap Spier

Supreme Court of The Netherland
Advocate General
He is travelling on 5 November, but wanted to emphasize that he found the workshop “a very valuable initiative”.

Mr Davyth Stewart

Interpol, Environmental Crime Unit
He regretted very much he is travelling on date of the workshop, his material was shared at the workshop.

Prof Jonathan Verschuuren

University of Tilburg
He has discussed viability of a separate climate court, looks forward to future cooperation.

Mr Huib van Westen

Netherlands Human Environment and Transport Inspectorate
Senior Inspector

Dr Thorsten Wetzling

The Hague Institute for Global Justice
He missed his plane the morning of the workshop.

Prof Rob White

University of Tasmania
He has spoken on the need for a global juridical facility to deal with ecocide at the conference on environmental crime and its victims in September at the Delft Technical University.