

Organised by Institute for Environmental Security and EcoJust

Ecocide: Developing a View from The Hague, 5 November 2012

Institute for Environmental Security (IES)
Anna Paulownastraat 103, 2518 BC The Hague

Programme

9.30 Coffee & Registration

10.00 Opening and Welcome

by Wouter Veening, Chairman and President, IES

10.05 Introduction to the Theme of the Workshop

by Polly Higgins, Eradicating Ecocide

10.45 Panel Presenting Cases of Ecocide:

- Pauline Verheij, EcoJust: Transnational Wildlife Crime: The Case for Creating an International Judicial Process
- Julian Newman, Environmental Investigation Agency: The Smuggling of Ozone Depleting Substances
- Louis-Joan Lemmer: The Case of the Marsh Arabs in Iraq
- Tim Boekhout van Solinge, University of Utrecht: Illegal Deforestation in the Brazilian Amazon and the Fate of the Indigenous Communities
- Wouter Veening: Summary of Prof Ronald Kramer's paper 'Climate Change: A State-Corporate Crime Perspective'
- Participants' Interventions

12.15 A Research Guide on Ecocide

by Ingrid Kost, Conservator, Peace Palace Library

- 12.30 Lunch
- 13.30 Reflections on Ecocide in Relation to the Statute of the International Criminal Court
by Reinhold Gallmetzer, Office of the Prosecutor, ICC
- 14.15 Further Reflections & Discussions
by participants on (legal) research and the role of The Hague, as “Legal Capital of the World” in relation to ecocide
- 15.45 Next steps
- 16.00 Closing

More Information

<http://www.envirosecurity.org/ecocide/nov2012/workshop.php>