

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF DENMARK

Climate Change and International Security 15th December 1.30-3pm at DR-Byen's Concert House, Studie 2 Open to the general public

The Danish Minister for Foreign Affairs Per Stig Møller has invited a panel of world leaders for a debate on the impact of climate change on international security. The panel will include:

- African Union Commission Chairperson Dr. Jean Ping
- EU Presidency, Swedish Minister for Foreign Affairs Carl Bildt
- NATO Secretary General Anders Fogh Rasmussen
- UNDP Administrator Helen Clark

The moderator will be Steffen Kretz, Senior International Editor and anchor with the Danish Broadcasting Corporation (DR).

You are invited to take part. Participation is free of charge. Seats will be allocated on a first come, first served basis due to the limited number of seats. A binding registration is therefore necessary. Register by sending your name and contact details to MEK@UM.DK. You will receive a personal confirmation of registration, which you must bring with you in order to access the event.

Venue: DR-Byen's Concert House, Studie 2, Emil Holms Kanal 20, 0999 Copenhagen C.

Nearest metro: DR-Byen (two stops from the Bella Center).

Doors open at 12.30 and close at 1.15pm, to ensure a prompt start to the debate.
