The bushmeat chain reaction

- Hunting methods
- Cultural and social changes
- Lack of meat farming
- Plans imposed by international finance
- Poverty
- Unemployment
- Absence of economic and alimentary alternatives
- Low meat productivity and higher costs of production
- All your hunting
- Hunting efficiency increased
- Law or no regulation
- Forest wildlife access facilitated
- Deforestation and habitat loss
- Demographic increase

Source: Redmond, J., et al., Recipes for Success: Controlling the Bushmeat Trade, WWF, 2004

Corruption

- Widespread corruption
- No corruption

The size of the bubbles reflects estimated volume of suspect roundwood, including imports

Source: Seneca Cree Associates 2004

Conference 29-30/09/10

“illegal trade in natural resources” what can brussels do?

Institute for Environmental Security

www.envirosecurity.org